Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your email.

Would Tuesday 12.00 work for you? If so, you can call me at the number in signature.

Kind regards

Dear Mr [REDACTED]

Thanks for your response. I would very much welcome a discussion next week and I could propose Monday (between 1100-1500) or Tuesday (1000 -1400). I hope one of those times will be convenient for you.

[REDACTED]

Looking forward to your response.
Regards

Dear [REDACTED],

My apologies for the late reply. As I explained when we spoke on the phone, I am new to the post, and the past weeks have been very busy.

As regards your request for a meeting, taking into account that you already met and discussed with colleagues on the matter, I would suggest that we schedule a call at this stage so that you can inform me about your updated views on the matter. If necessary, we could discuss about the possibility to hold a meeting at a later stage.

Please let me know if this approach is suitable to you, and feel free to propose some timeslots for next week.

Kind regards

[REDACTED]

Subject: Discussion and possible meeting with ECPA

Dear Mr ██████████

Following on from our telephone call, I would like to provide more information about the issue I would like to discuss with you in more detail.
It relates to on-going discussions on the setting of 'import tolerances' (trading standards for pesticides on agricultural commodities). This is an issue that is currently being discussed and could have a significant impact on ag.trade.

I enclose a copy of a letter sent to DG SANTE on this issue (as well as the SANTE response for completeness). This is however an on-going discussion which raises some questions of 'Better Regulation'. I would welcome the opportunity to explain our concerns and to provide any clarification. I would also like to take the opportunity to present the work of ECPA (www.ecpa.eu) and to discuss some of the broader challenges in our policy area.

If feasible for you, I would like to suggest a possible meeting on the morning on Thursday 28th September.
Thank you in advance for your feedback.
Regards
