Dear Ms Silva,

I hope this email finds you well and sorry for the late reply; I had to ask about this information to some colleagues that just came back from their holidays.

Here are the answers to your questions:

- 1) As for our donors this is public information which can be found here: http://www.appf.europa.eu/cmsdata/230872/2020_FOUNDATIONS_Donations_the_value_of_which_exceeds_EUR_12_000_23112020.pdf
- 2) This event was part of a global 2020 sponsorship from Google. For this event, the Wilfried Martens Centre for European Studies selected entirely the speakers, topic and format of the discussion, without any kind of external direction.
- 3) Our line of work is not compromised or affected by any donor whatsoever. The Martens Centre works with our member foundations and partners in Europe's best interest without any kind of external influence.
- 4) No other comments to make.

Best regards,

Álvaro de la Cruz
