Parliament approves new copyright rules
26-03-2019
Parliament has endorsed new copyright rules for the digital age that will ensure rights and responsibilities of intellectual property now apply to the online world too. Smaller sites and individuals will be partially or fully exempt, protecting the right of freedom of expression online.

Committee approves deal on copyright
25-02-2019
Parliament negotiators have reached an agreement with EU governments on new online copyright rules. The deal as approved by the Legal Affairs Committee safeguards freedom of expression on the internet, including memes, while ensuring that artists and news publishers are paid fairly for their work.

New copyright rules for the digital age
12-09-2018
The Parliament voted to update copyright rules in the digital single market to ensure fair pay and recognition for artists, news publishers, authors and performers.

Data Protection: Sign away your life no more
13-04-2016
Citizens are set to regain control of their personal data, enjoy strengthened parental consent and the right to be forgotten as Parliament finalises new rules.
